THE LAW AND THE FISH DEALERS-THE SUN ENGINE HOUSE,—For some time past the regular fish dealers have complained of persons being allowed, during the fishing son in, to buy small quantities of fish at Fishtown all hawk them through the streets, or expose em for sale in the small shops about the city. retail men have insisted that after paying high rent for benches in the market, their susiness, which in the past has been greatly mirred by allowing fish to be sold at all hours on the day all over the city, ought to be protected by law. Now, that the fishing Mayor with a view of obtaining some just ettlement of the matter, called a joint meeting of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund and Committee on Public Property of the City Council, last night, at which all interested in the fish business were invited to be present.

The meeting was held in the Auditor's office The were present: Mayor Smith, who presided, and Mossrs, E. E. Downham, J. T. Beckham, P. L. Breckett of the Sinking Pana Commissier; W. H. Martury and T. V. Rishiell, of one committee on Public Property; K. Ketaper, corporation atteracy, and a number of fist laders among them Messes, Javius, Sutton, tries, Caic, Travers and others.

dealers being called upon for an expresson of opinion on the cultice, several of them stared that the needling of fish through the city, allowed during previous seasons, steatly miored their trade. They desired the law, requiring all fish cought to be landed as he fish whatf, and all fish disposed of by retail. to be said from the mark t building, to b tricily opined during the coming sesson.

Mr. Rishall moved that the whole matter b forred to a sub committee of two from the icking Ford Commission, two from the comlittee on Public Property and two from the sladeniers, to be by them considered at a fu-

The motion was adopted, and the chair appointed F. L. Brocket, and E. E. Dawnham, of the Sinking Fund Commission; Wm. H. Marsury, and C. V. Rishell, of the committee a Public Property, and James R. Cola and ico, F. Pries of the fish dealers. On merion of Mr. Dawnham, Mayor Smith was elected chairman of the sub committee. A conversational debate then took place as to how the fish offal should be disposed of, some contending that the throwing of it overboard rand be a great benefit to the fishery. No ne inp in the matter, however was taken. The Mayer officially turned over to the Sinking Fund Commissioners, the house recently committed by the Ean Rogico, and stated that b I are the property was surrendered to the City Uraneil, he had, by the consent of the company, graned in it a soup house for the benefit of the

The property was received, and on motion of Mr. Beekham, Mayer Smith was instructed to advertise it for ronf.
The meeting then adjourned subject to the call of the charmao.

MEETING OF THE CONSERVATIVE READJUS TER CLUB - A large meeting of the Conservative Headinster Club was held has night, with James W. Shipp, president, in the chair, and the maintenance of the white man's supremacy in the councils of our State government is of the first importance, not loss for the wolfare of the inferior than of the superior race.

Major Baker P. Lee, of Norfolk, who was present, upon invitation, delivered an interesting address upon the condition of the party in the State. He complimented the members of the cub upon the work done by them in the last campaign, and urged them to put forth, if possible, even greater efforts in the one upon which they were about to enter.

After some further interchange of views in regard to State matters, in which it was stated that the convention to cominate a candidate for Governor and other State officers would meet in this city at an early date, the menting ad-

During the week business has been very quiet the continued ice blockeds and inclement weather to a great extent hindering all branches of trads, retail and wholesale. Money matters are quiet, there being no pressing demand, while the banks are in a condition to accommodate ali the wants of the business community. The supply of loanable funds in the Faltimore market is reported smyle, and the rates to good borro # ers are easy. Leans on government are quoted at 4a5 per cent and on mixed stock collateral 5a6 per cent with a leaning to the inside figures. The New York money market stands the strain of the rising spaculations at the stock exchange as well as could be expected. The call loan quotation is EnG per cent; the time loan quotation 4.6 per cent, according to the collateral and date of loars, and the quotation for prime mercantile paper is 5.51 per cent. The Philadelphia money market is reported easy at 4a43 per cent for leass on government and 5a6 on stock collateral. Government bonds were steady and quiet yesterday, the passage of the funding bill by the House of Representatives producing no effect, as it is falt to be by no means certain that the bill in its present shaps will become a law. that the management of the lines of which he The final quotations in New York showed no assumes control will prove eatis actory to the traveling community and remunerative to the change.
